25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

JAN 15 1964

STATOTHR

I was very sorry that I did not have a chance to see you during your recent visit to Washington, but I hesitated to bother you knowing that you were very busy.

We received a letter from [redacted] the other day giving us the details of his return to this country and it appears now that he will be here around the middle of February. He will, of course, require a certain amount of time to finish off his previous work and get settled down with us.

STAT

Colonel Grogan tells me that you expect to come to Washington at the end of this month. In view of the fact that [redacted] will be assuming his duties some time after the middle of February, I think it would be better to delay your trip to Washington until he is aboard so that you can give him help in getting oriented on his new job. I will write you later and let you know when would be the best time for this trip.

STAT

Sincerely,

[redacted]
